

Mystery Case No. 3

QUANTUM OF SOLITUDE

Dear Inspector,

Re: 1 Seuss Dr.
Solla Sollew, A Lonely Universe
November 11, 2011

I've discovered something truly unique, but no one believes a single word I say. I feel so alone in this universe. No one notices anything these days! Would you care to take a closer look?

I'm counting on these letters to find you well!

In solitude,

J.J. Horton
